Explore

10 Applecross Peninsula

This tiny town is home to fantastic beaches, spectacular sunsets and a diversity of shops and eateries. Take the Bealach na Ba road for spectacular views.

11 Shieldaig

Boasting a gorgeous setting with rocky outcrops, pretty pine trees and a scattering of white-washed cottages, this quaint village is also home to a pair of rare white-tailed eagles – a truly wonderful sight.

Visitor's top tips

There are lovely sandy beaches at Gairloch, Red Point and Mellon Udrigle.

Day trips to Isle of Skye and Loch Ness were worth travelling the distance.

Try your hand at fishing for Mackrel at Gairloch Harbour.

Torridon (Thursday) and Poolewe (Tuesday) markets are great for local crafts and local fresh produce.

Kinlochewe hotel serves really good food, has a great gin selection, the staff are very welcoming and it's dog friendly.

We found a different walk this year along to the other side of Loch Maree, offering lovely views. You can take a boat trip from Loch Maree too!

Eat fresh seafood at Kishorn Seafood Bar.

Walk or cycle to local Torridon, it has interesting geology and a lovely cafe.

Take a drive to Gairloch to visit their butchers shop, and also the Farm and Garden store for superb produce.

The filling station next to site offered lovely coffee and cakes.

The Russian Arctic Convoy Museum is definitely worth a visit for history lovers.
