Visitor's top tips

|| If you enjoy National Trust properties, Hinton Ampner, Uppark, Petworth House, The Wyne, Mottisfont and Mompesson House are all within an hours drive.

There is so much to see in Historic Winchester, make sure you spend a couple of days exploring.

You can use the Park and Ride, or catch the bus from 5 minutes walk away and you'll be in Winchester in 8 minutes.

The Royal Green Jackets Museum and Waterloo Exhibition in Winchester is an excellent day out.

There are some lovely dog walks on and around site to explore.

We loved the Winchester Farmers Market, held on the second and last Sunday every month – it's the largest in the UK!

Southampton and Portsmouth are fantastic for shopping, and if you're looking for some great discounts on designer brands, head to Gunwharf Quays.

The Winchester Science Centre and Planetarium is a lovely, interesting day out with something for all ages to enjoy.

We absolutely loved our day out to Monkey World, located around a 30-minute drive away. **||
